To: The Shareholders of Gallant Venture Ltd.

Dear Shareholders

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 We refer to the Notice of EGM dated 15 November 2018 convening the EGM to be held on 7 December 2018. The Directors are convening the EGM to seek the approval of Shareholders for the proposed adoption of the New Constitution of the Company.
- 1.2 The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with information relating to, and to explain the rationale for, the proposed adoption of the New Constitution and to seek Shareholders' approval in relation thereto at the forthcoming EGM. This Circular has been prepared solely for the purpose set out herein and may not be relied upon by any persons (other than Shareholders to whom this Circular is despatched by the Company and for the aforementioned purpose) or for any other purpose.
- 1.3 The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made, reports contained or opinions expressed in this Circular.

2. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION

2.1 Amendment Acts

The Amendment Acts, which were passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and 10 March 2017, respectively, introduced wide-ranging amendments to the Companies Act previously in force. The changes to the Companies Act pursuant to the Amendment Acts aim to reduce the regulatory burden on companies, provide for greater business flexibility and improve the corporate governance landscape for companies in Singapore. The key changes under the 2014 Amendment Act include the introduction of a multiple proxies regime to enfranchise indirect investors and CPF investors, as well as provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents. In addition, what had been previously the memorandum and articles of association of a company have now been merged into a single constitutive document called the “constitution”. The key changes under the 2017 Amendment Act include the removal of the requirement for a common seal.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2.2 New Constitution

Pursuant to the new Section 4(13) of the Companies Act (as amended by the 2014 Amendment Act), the memorandum and articles of association of the Company that were in force immediately before 3 January 2016 are collectively deemed to constitute, and have effect as, the constitution of the Company with effect from 3 January 2016 (the “Existing Constitution”).

Instead of making alterations throughout the Existing Constitution in order to update and streamline its provisions generally and to be in line with the changes to the regulatory framework, the Company is proposing to adopt a new constitution (the “New Constitution”) in place of the Existing Constitution. The proposed New Constitution also contains updated provisions which are consistent with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual. In addition, the Company is taking the opportunity to include provisions in the New Constitution to address the personal data protection regime in Singapore, and also to streamline and rationalise the language used and certain other provisions.

2.3 Summary of Principal Provisions

The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the proposed New Constitution which are considered significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the proposed New Constitution as new provisions, and should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Appendix 2 to this Circular. Numbered Regulations referred to in the following summary pertain to relevant provisions of the proposed New Constitution, unless otherwise stated.

2.3.1 Companies Act

The following Regulations are proposed to be revised or inserted as new provisions such that these provisions would be consistent with the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts. In line with Section 35 of the Companies Act, all references to “Article” or “Articles” in the Existing Constitution have been amended to “Regulation” or “Regulations” in the New Constitution:

- (a) Regulation 1 (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 1, which is the interpretation section of the New Constitution, includes the following new and/or updated provisions:
 - (i) an updated definition of “in writing” to provide that this expression, where used in the New Constitution, includes any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic or otherwise. This seeks to facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (ii) new definitions of “registered address” and “address” to make it clear that these expressions mean, in relation to any Member, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified;
 - (iii) a new provision stating that the expressions “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the SFA. This follows the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Amendment Acts; and
 - (iv) a new provision stating that the expressions “current address”, “electronic communications”, “financial statements”, “relevant intermediary” and “treasury shares” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Companies Act. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (b) New Regulation 4. The objects clauses contained in the Existing Constitution (and as set out in Appendix 3 to this Circular) are proposed to be deleted and substituted with Regulation 4 in the New Constitution. The new Regulation 4 is a general provision which states that, subject to the Companies Act and/or any other written law and the New Constitution, the Company has full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transaction. This is in accordance with Section 23 of the Companies Act which provides that a company has, subject to the law and to the provisions of its constitution, full rights, powers and privileges to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transaction. This will enable the Company to take advantage of the flexibility afforded by Section 23 of the Companies Act and remove any uncertainty as to whether the Company has the power to act in a particular way or to engage in a particular transaction, subject to the restrictions imposed by the New Constitution, the Companies Act, the Listing Manual and any other applicable laws, rules and regulations.
- (c) New Regulation 7(2). Regulation 7(2) is a new provision which provides that new shares may be issued for no consideration. This provision is in line with the new Section 68 of the Companies Act, which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.
- (d) Regulation 21 (Article 19 of the Existing Constitution). The requirement to disclose the amount paid on the shares in the share certificate relating to those shares has been removed in Regulation 21, which relates to share certificates. A share certificate need only state, inter alia, the number and class of the shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares. This follows the amendments to Section 123(2) of the Companies Act pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (e) Regulation 71 (Article 68 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 71, which relates to the Company’s power to alter its share capital, has new provisions which empower the Company, by ordinary resolution, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with the new Section 73 of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions in the New Constitution do not permit the Company to have dual-class share structures or to issue shares which carry differential voting rights.

- (f) Regulation 78 (Article 77 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 78, which relates to the routine business that is transacted at an annual general meeting, includes updates which:
- (i) substitute the reference to “accounts” with “financial statements”, and the reference to “reports of the Directors and Auditors” with “Directors’ statement” and “Auditor’s report”, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act;
 - (ii) expand the routine business items to include, in addition to the appointment of a new Auditor, the re-appointment of the retiring Auditor; and
 - (iii) clarify the types of Directors’ remuneration which will be subject to approval by Shareholders as routine business.
- (g) Regulation 84(2) (Article 83 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 84(2), which relates to the method of voting at a general meeting where mandatory polling is not required, contains reduced thresholds for the eligibility to demand a poll of 5% (previously one-tenth) of the total voting rights of the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and 5% (previously 10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right. This is in line with Section 178 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (h) Regulations 90(2), 90(3), 94, and 96(1) (Articles 92, 97, 98 and 99 of the Existing Constitution). Regulations 90(2), 90(3), 94 and 96(1), which relate to the voting rights of Members and the appointment and deposit of proxies, contain new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Acts. The multiple proxies regime allows “relevant intermediaries”, such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the Central Provident Fund Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:
- (i) Regulation 90(2) provides that in the case of a Member who is a “relevant intermediary” and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with the new Section 181(1D) of the Companies Act.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Company will still be required to comply with the requirements of Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which states that all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll;

- (ii) Regulation 94(1) provides that subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, a Member who is a “relevant intermediary” may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Member, and where such Member’s form of proxy appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with the new Section 181(1C) of the Companies Act;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (iii) In connection with the above, the relevant time periods for the appointment of proxies before a general meeting have been amended as well.

Regulation 94(2) provides that the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at seventy-two (72) (previously forty-eight (48)) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in Regulations 90(3) and 94(2) to provide that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at seventy-two (72) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with the new Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA; and

- (iv) Regulation 96(1) has been amended to increase the cut-off time for the deposit of instruments appointing proxies from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting. This is in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (i) Regulation 106(2) (Article 110(b) and (c) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 106(2), which relates to the disclosure requirements imposed on Directors in respect of their interest(s) in transactions or proposed transactions or of any office or property held by him which might create duties or interests in conflict with his duties or interests as a Director or such officer (as the case may be), has been amended to extend such disclosure requirements to any relevant officer of the Company to whom Section 156 of the Companies Act applies. This is in line with the new Section 156 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (j) Regulation 115 (Article 119 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 115, which relates to the Directors' power to fill casual vacancies and to appoint additional Directors, provides that the Company may also do so by ordinary resolution. This is in line with the new Section 149B of the Companies Act, which provides that unless the constitution otherwise provides, a company may appoint a director by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (k) Regulation 120 (Article 124 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 120, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business, has been amended to clarify that the business and affairs of the Company are to be managed by, or under the direction of, or additionally, under the supervision of, the Directors. This is in line with Section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (l) Regulation 176 (Articles 179 and 180 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 176, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Members, additionally provides that such documents may, subject to the listing rules of the SGX-ST, be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with the new Section 203(2) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this proviso, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting. The requirement to send these documents to debenture holders has also been removed in Regulation 176.

Where applicable, the references to the Company's "accounts", "profit and loss account(s)" and Directors' "reports" have also been updated/substituted with references, or additional references, to "financial statements" and Directors' "statements", as appropriate, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act. This is in line with the new Section 201 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.

- (m) Regulation 181 and New Regulation 182 (Articles 185, 188 and 194 of the Existing Constitution). Regulations 181 and 182, which relate to the service of notices and documents to Members, has new provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to the Amendment Acts.

Under the new Section 387C of the Companies Act, notices and documents may be given, sent or served using electronic communications with the express, implied or deemed consent of the member in accordance with the constitution of the company. This is also permitted under Rules 1208 to 1212 of the Listing Manual.

In this regard:

- (i) there is express consent if a member expressly agrees with the company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communications;
- (ii) there is deemed consent if the constitution:
 - (aa) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
 - (bb) specifies that members will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices and documents,and the member fails to make an election within the specified period of time. This is also provided for in Rule 1209(1)(a) of the Listing Manual; and
- (iii) there is implied consent if the constitution:
 - (aa) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
 - (bb) provides that members shall agree to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notices and documents.

This is also provided for in Rule 1209(2) of the Listing Manual.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Certain safeguards for the use of the deemed consent and implied consent regimes are prescribed under the new regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations as well as Rule 1209(1)(b) of the Listing Manual, which provide that before giving, sending or serving any notice or document by way of electronic communications to a member who is deemed to have consented under Section 387C(3) of the Companies Act (the deemed consent regime as described in paragraph 2.3.1(m)(ii) above), the company must have given separate notice to the member in writing on at least one occasion that:

- (i) the member has a right to elect, within a time specified in the notice, whether to receive notices and documents by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy;
- (ii) if the member does not make an election, documents will be sent to the member by way of electronic communications;
- (iii) the manner in which electronic communications will be used is the manner specified in the constitution of the company or where not specified, the means of electronic communications that will be used to give, send or serve notices or documents is by publication on the company's website that is specified in the separate notice;
- (iv) the election is a standing election, but the member may make a fresh election at any time to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy; and
- (v) until the member makes a fresh election, the election that is conveyed to the company last in time prevails over all previous elections as the member's valid and subsisting election in relation to all documents to be sent.

Regulation 182 was inserted with the objective of facilitating the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to the new Section 387C of the Companies Act and Rules 1208 and 1209 of the Listing Manual. Companies may, subject to certain statutory safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures so long as the specified modes of electronic transmission are set out in their constitutions.

In particular:

Regulation 182(1) provides that notices and documents may be sent to Members using electronic communications either to the current address (which may be an email address) of that person or by making it available on a website. In this connection, Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer uses website publication as the form of electronic communications, the issuer shall separately provide a physical notification to shareholders notifying of the following:

- (i) the publication of the document on the website;
- (ii) if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (iii) the address of the website;
- (iv) the place on the website where the document may be accessed; and
- (v) how to access the document.

Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual will apply to the Company in the event that it serves notices and documents to Members by making them available on a website.

Regulation 182(2) further provides that, subject to the Companies Act and any regulations made thereunder and the listing rules of the SGX-ST relating to electronic communications, a Member has given his implied consent, and shall agree to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document.

Regulation 182(3) further states that notwithstanding the aforesaid, subject to the Companies Act and any regulations made thereunder and the listing rules of the SGX-ST relating to electronic communications, the Directors may, at their discretion, decide to give Members an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Member is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications, if he was given such an opportunity but failed to make an election within the specified time.

Regulation 182(5) provides for when service is deemed to have been effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it shall be treated as given or sent to, or served on, a person on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures.

It should be noted, however, that under the new regulation 89D of the Companies Regulations, notices or documents relating to take-over offers and rights issues cannot be transmitted by electronic means. Similarly, Rule 1210 of the Listing Manual provides that an issuer shall send the following documents to its shareholders by way of physical copies: (i) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to complete; (ii) notices of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred to in that notice; (iii) notices and documents relating to takeover offers and rights issues; and (iv) notices under Rules 1211 and 1212 of the Listing Manual. Notwithstanding that the Company is permitted by the Companies Act and the Listing Manual to send notices and documents to Shareholders by electronic communications, Rule 1211 of the Listing Manual provides that when an issuer uses electronic communications to send a document to a shareholder, the issuer shall inform the shareholder as soon as practicable of how to request for a physical copy of that document from the issuer and the issuer shall provide a physical copy of that document upon such request. Therefore, Regulation 182(4) has been inserted in the New Constitution to provide that the Company shall send to Members physical copies of such notices or documents as may be specified by law or the listing rules of the SGX-ST.

- (n) Regulation 192 (Article 200 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 192, which relates to Directors' indemnification, has been expanded to permit the Company, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Companies Act, to indemnify a Director against losses “to be incurred” by him in the execution of his duties. This is in line with the new Sections 163A and 163B of the Companies Act, which permit a company to lend, on specified terms, funds to a director for meeting expenditure incurred “or to be incurred” by him in defending court proceedings or regulatory investigations.

2.3.2 Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

The following regulations have been updated to ensure consistency with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual:

- (a) Regulation 75 (Article 74 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 75, which relates to notice of general meetings, clarifies that the requirement for at least 14 days’ notice of any general meeting to be given by advertisement in the daily press in circulation in Singapore and in writing to the SGX-ST only applies so long as the shares in the Company are listed on the SGX-ST. This is in line with paragraph (7) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (b) New Regulation 84(1). Regulation 84(1), which relates to the method of voting at general meetings, has been inserted to make it clear that, if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). These changes are in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which requires all resolutions at general meetings to be voted by poll.
- (c) Regulation 86 (Articles 85 and 86 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 86, which relates to conduct of the poll and incidental matters, makes it clear that scrutineers will be appointed, if so required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST. This is in line with Rule 730A(3) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (d) Regulation 94 (Article 97 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 94, which sets out provisions relating to proxies including rights relating to their appointment, has been amended to provide that:
 - (i) a Member who has deposited an instrument appointing a proxy/proxies to vote on his behalf at a general meeting shall not be precluded from attending and voting at that general meeting; and
 - (ii) any such appointment of all the proxies concerned shall be deemed to be revoked upon attendance of the Member appointing the proxy/proxies at the relevant general meeting.

These amendments are in line with paragraph 3.3 of Practice Note 7.5 of the Listing Manual, which provides that if a shareholder submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy should be revoked.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (e) Regulations 109 and 113 (Articles 114 and 117 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 109, which relates to the vacation of office of a Director in certain events, additionally provides that a Director shall cease to hold office if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. Consequential changes have been made to Regulation 113, which relates to the filling of the office vacated by a retiring Director in certain default events, to provide that a retiring Director is deemed to be re-elected in certain default circumstances except, additionally, where he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. These changes are in line with paragraph (9)(n) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual, which provides that where a director is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds, he must immediately resign from the board.

2.3.3 PDPA

In general, under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, an organisation can only collect, use or disclose personal data of an individual with the individual's consent, and for a reasonable purpose which the organisation has made known to the individual. The new Regulation 194 specifies, inter alia, the purposes for which the Company and/or its agents and service providers would collect, use and disclose personal data of Members and their appointed proxies or representatives.

2.3.4 General

The following regulations have been included in the New Constitution, or have been updated, streamlined and rationalised generally:

- (a) Regulations 29, 38, 91, 97 and 109 (Articles 26, 35, 93, 101 and 114 of the Existing Constitution). These Regulations have been updated to substitute the references to insanity, lunatics and persons of unsound mind with references to mental disorder and persons who are "mentally disordered" and incapable of managing themselves or their affairs, following the enactment of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act, Chapter 178A, which repealed and replaced the Mental Disorders and Treatment Act.
- (b) Regulation 73 (Article 70 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 73, which relates to the time-frame for holding annual general meetings, has been revised to make it clear that an annual general meeting shall be held once in every year in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act but not more than four (4) months shall lapse between the end of each financial year and such annual general meeting unless the Registrar authorises an extension of time to hold such annual general meeting or as otherwise permitted by the Companies Act. This is in line with the amended Section 175(1) of the Companies Act.
- (c) Regulations 94 and 96 (Articles 98 and 99 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 94, which relates to the appointment of proxies, has new provisions to facilitate the appointment of a proxy through electronic means online. In particular, it provides that a Member can elect to authorise the appointment of a proxy via electronic communication, through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Members' common seal or execution thereof as a deed in accordance with the Companies Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

For the purpose of accommodating the deposit by Members, and receipt by the Company, of electronic proxy instructions by Members who elect to use the electronic appointment process, Regulation 96, which relates to the deposit of proxies, has new provisions which authorise the Directors to prescribe and determine the manner of receipt by the Company of the instrument appointing a proxy through digital means.

- (d) Regulation 111 (Article 115 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 111, which relates to the retirement of Directors by rotation, clarifies that the Directors who are to retire by rotation are to be selected in accordance with Regulation 112.
- (e) Regulation 172 (Article 174 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 172, which relates to the Directors' power to issue free shares and/or to capitalise reserves for share-based incentive plans, has been expanded to empower the Directors to do the same for the benefit of non-executive Directors as part of their Directors' remuneration (which has to be approved by Members in general meeting). This will enable the Company, if it so desires, to remunerate its non-executive Directors by way of Directors' fees in the form of shares, or in a combination of cash and shares, using these methods.

- Payment in advance of calls

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

47. If a Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call by or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued thereon and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

- Notice to state time and place of payment
49. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.
- Forfeiture of shares for non-compliance with notice
50. A forfeiture of shares shall include all dividends in respect of the shares not actually paid before the forfeiture notwithstanding that they shall have been declared.
- Forfeiture to include all dividends
51. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.
- Directors may accept surrender in lieu
52. The forfeiture or surrender of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture or surrender of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited or surrendered and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved, or as are by the Act given or imposed in the case of past Members.

| 53. | Notwithstanding any such forfeiture, the Directors may, at any time before the forfeited share has been otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture, upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and upon such further terms (if any) as they shall see fit. | Directors may allow forfeited share to be redeemed |
| 54. | A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person, on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit and at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. To give effect to any such sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the Directors are empowered to or may authorise some other person to transfer the shares to the purchaser. | Sale of forfeited shares |
| 55. | The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. | Company may receive consideration of sale |
| 56. | If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, trustees, administrators or assignees or as he directs. | Application of residue of proceeds of forfeiture |
| 57. | A person whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a Member in respect of the shares, but shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture or surrender, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum (or such lower rate as the Directors may approve) from the date of the forfeiture or surrender until payment in respect of the shares; but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares. The Directors may at their absolute disclosure enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or surrender or waive payment either wholly or in part. | Liabilities of Members whose shares forfeited |
| 58. | Notice of any forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share forfeited or to the person entitled by transmission to the share forfeited as the case may be. An entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof and the fact of the notice given shall be made in the Register of Members or in the Depository Register (as the case may be) opposite the share. LIEN ON SHARES

59. (1) The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares not fully paid up in the name of a Member (whether solely or jointly with others) and all dividends, interest and other distributions from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member. The Directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this regulation.
- (2) No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privileges as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether along or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any).
60. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell all or any of the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until a notice in writing stating the amount due and demanding payment and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been served in such a manner as the Directors shall think fit on such Member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment shall have been made by him or them for seven (7) days after such notice. To give effect to any such sale or other disposition, the Directors are empowered or may authorise some other person to transfer the shares to the purchaser.
61. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses due from the Member to the Company in respect of the shares and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited or his executors, trustees, administrators or assignees or as he directs; Provided always that the Company shall be entitled to a lien upon such residue in respect of any money due to the Company but not presently payable like to that which it had upon the shares immediately before the sale thereof.
62. To give effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser and the Directors may enter the purchaser's name in the Register of Members as holder of the shares and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity or validity of the transfer or be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings or be bound to see to the application of the purchase money. After his name has been entered in the Register of Members the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

APPENDIX 2 – NEW CONSTITUTION

63. A statutory declaration in writing by a Director that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration and the receipt of the Company of the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof, together with the certificate under seal for the share delivered to a purchaser (or where the purchaser is a Depositor, to the Depository or its nominee (as the case may be)) or allottee thereof, shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of shall be entered in the Register of Members as the holder of the share or (as the case may be) in the Depository Register in respect of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

64. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution convert any paid up shares into stock and may from time to time by like resolution reconvert such stock into paid up shares.
- Conversion from share to stock and back to share
65. When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may transfer their respective interests therein or any part of such interests in such manner as the Company in general meeting shall direct, but in the absence of such direction, the respective interests may be transferred in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as the shares from which the stock arose would have been transferred prior to conversion or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. But the Directors may if they think fit from time to time fix the minimum number of stock units transferable.
- Transfer of stock
66. The holders of stock shall, according to the number of stock units held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividend, return of capital, voting and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except as regards dividend and return of capital and the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by the number of stock units which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage, and no such conversion shall affect or prejudice any preference or other special privileges attached to the shares so converted.
- Rights of stock-holders
67. All such provisions of this Constitution as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock and in all such provisions the words 'share' and 'shareholder' shall include 'stock' and 'stockholder'.

ALTERATIONS OF CAPITAL

68. (1) Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting (including by way of general authority) or except as permitted under the listing rules of the Exchange, all new shares shall before issue be offered to such Members who as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as far as the circumstances admit, to the number of the existing shares to which they are entitled or hold. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined. After the expiration of that time or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares), in the opinion of the Directors, cannot be conveniently offered under this regulation 68(1).
- Offer of new shares to members
- (2) Notwithstanding regulation 68(1), the Company may by Ordinary Resolution in general meeting give to the Directors a general authority, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the Ordinary Resolution, to:
- General authority for Directors to issue new shares and make or grant Instruments
- (a) (i) issue shares of the Company whether by way of rights, bonus or otherwise; and/or
- (ii) make or grant offers, agreements or options (collectively, 'Instruments') that might or would require shares to be issued, including but not limited to the creation and issue of (as well as adjustments to) warrants, debentures or other instruments convertible into shares; and
- (b) (notwithstanding that the authority conferred by the Ordinary Resolution may have ceased to be in force) issue shares in pursuance of any Instrument made or granted by the Directors while the Ordinary Resolution was in force,

Provided always that:

- (1) the aggregate number of shares to be issued pursuant to the Ordinary Resolution (including shares to be issued in pursuance of Instruments made or granted pursuant to the Ordinary Resolution) shall be subject to such limits and manner of calculation as may be prescribed by the Exchange;
- (2) in exercising the authority conferred by the Ordinary Resolution, the Company shall comply with the provisions of the listing rules of the Exchange for the time being in force (unless such compliance is waived by the Exchange) and this Constitution; and

- (3) (unless revoked or varied by the Company in general meeting) the authority conferred by the Ordinary Resolution shall not continue in force beyond the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting of the Company next following the passing of the Ordinary Resolution, or the date by which such Annual General Meeting of the Company is required by law to be held, or the expiration of such other period as may be prescribed by the Act (whichever is the earliest).
69. Notwithstanding regulation 68 above but subject to the Act, the Directors shall not be required to offer any new shares or make or grant any Instruments to Members to whom by reason of foreign securities laws such offer of shares or making or granting of Instruments may not be made without registration of the shares or Instruments or a prospectus or other document, but may, at their absolute discretion and on such terms and conditions as the Directors deem fit, sell the entitlements to the new shares on behalf of such Members in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.
70. Subject to any directions that may be given in accordance with the powers contained in this Constitution, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital as consisting of ordinary shares and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien and otherwise as if it had been part of the original capital.
71. (1) The Company may by Ordinary Resolution or as otherwise permitted by the provisions of the Statutes:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its shares;
- (b) subdivide its shares or any of them (subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Statutes and this Constitution) provided always that in such subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
- (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken, or agreed to be taken, by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its capital by the number of the shares so cancelled; and
- (d) subject to the provisions of the Statutes, convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency.
- (2) The Company may by Special Resolution and subject to and in accordance with the Statutes, convert one class of shares into another class of shares.
72. (1) The Company may reduce its share capital or any undistributable reserve in any manner, subject to any requirements and consents required by law.

| (2) Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the listing rules of the Exchange and any applicable legislation or regulation, the Company may authorise the Directors in general meeting to purchase or otherwise acquire ordinary shares, stocks, preference shares, options, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, securities, and all other equity, derivative, debt and financial instruments issued by it on such terms as the Company may think fit and in the manner prescribed by the Act. The Company may deal with any such share which is so purchased or acquired by the Company in such manner as may be permitted by, and in accordance with, the Act (including without limitation, to hold such share as a treasury share). Without prejudice to the foregoing, upon cancellation of shares purchased or otherwise acquired by the Company pursuant to this Constitution and the Act, the number of issued shares of the Company shall be diminished by the number of shares so cancelled, and where any such cancelled shares were purchased or acquired out of the capital of the Company, the amount of the share capital of the Company shall be reduced accordingly. | Power to repurchase shares |

| 73. Save as otherwise permitted under the Act, an annual general meeting shall be held once in every year and in accordance with the requirements of the Act, at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors, but not more than four (4) months shall be allowed to elapse between the end of each financial year and such general meeting, unless the Registrar authorises an extension of time to hold such general meeting or as otherwise permitted by the Act, the listing rules of the Exchange and/or the Statutes. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Company shall hold all its general meetings in Singapore (unless prohibited by relevant laws and regulations in the jurisdiction of its incorporation) or such other jurisdiction as may be permitted by the Exchange. | Annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings |
| 74. The Directors may whenever they think fit convene an extraordinary general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting shall also be convened on such requisition by Members in accordance with the Act or in default may be convened by such requisitionist as provided for under the Act. If at any time there are not within Singapore sufficient Directors capable of action to form a quorum at a meeting of Directors, any Director may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which such a meeting may be convened by the Directors. | Calling for extraordinary general meetings |

| 75. Any general meeting at which it is proposed to pass Special Resolutions or (save as provided by the Statutes) a resolution of which special notice has been given to the Company pursuant to the Act, shall be called by at least twenty-one (21) clear days' notice in writing. An annual general meeting or any other general meeting shall be called by at least fourteen (14) clear days' notice in writing. The notice must specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting. Such notice shall be given in the manner hereinafter | Notice of meeting |

mentioned to all Members other than those who are not under the provisions of this Constitution and the Act entitled to receive such notices from the Company. The period of notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given. So long as the shares in the Company are listed on the Exchange, at least fourteen (14) days' notice of every general meeting shall be given by advertisement in the daily press and in writing to the Exchange and to each securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed.

Subject to the provisions of the Act and the listing rules of the Exchange, notwithstanding that it has been called by a shorter notice than that specified above, a general meeting shall be deemed to have been duly called if it is agreed:

Shorter notice

- (a) in the case of an annual general meeting by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of an extraordinary general meeting by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote thereat, being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent (95%) of the total voting rights of all the Members having a right to vote at that meeting.

Provided also that the accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

Accidental omission

76. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner authorised by this Constitution to:

Persons to whom notice of meeting is to be given

- (a) every Member holding shares conferring the right to attend and vote at the meeting who at the time of the convening of the meeting shall have paid all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares;
- (b) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or otherwise of a Member who but for the same would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting;
- (c) every Director;
- (d) the Auditors, without prejudice to regulation 180; and
- (e) the Exchange (and where applicable, any other securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed).

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings; Provided always that if the meeting is called for the alteration of the objects of the Company, the notice shall comply with the provisions of Section 33 of the Act regarding notices to debenture holders.

- | | | |
|-----|---|--|
| 77. | There shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and to vote instead of him and that such proxy need not be a Member. | Contents of notice for general meeting |
| 78. | Routine business shall mean and include only business transacted at an annual general meeting of the following classes, that is to say: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) receiving and adopting the financial statements, the Directors' statement, the Auditor's report and other documents required to be attached to the financial statements;(b) appointing or re-appointing Directors to fill vacancies arising at the meeting on retirement whether by rotation or otherwise;(c) fixing of the fees of Directors proposed to be paid under regulation 103(1);(d) declaring dividends; and(e) appointing or re-appointing Auditors and fixing the remuneration of the Auditors or determining the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed. Any notice of a meeting called to consider special business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution on the Company in respect of such special business. | Routine and special business |
| 79. | In the case of any general meeting at which business other than routine business is to be transacted (special business), the notice shall specify the general nature of the special business, and if any resolution is to be proposed as a Special Resolution or as requiring special notice, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect. | Notice to specify nature of special business |

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

|-----|--|--------|
| 80. | No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Except as herein otherwise provided, two (2) Members present in person shall form a quorum. For the purposes of this regulation, 'Member' includes a person attending as a proxy and a corporation being a Member shall be deemed to be personally present if represented in accordance with the provisions of Section 179(3) of the Act and such corporation's representative is not otherwise entitled to be present at the meeting as a Member or proxy or as a corporate representative of another Member. Provided always that (i) a proxy representing more than one (1) Member shall only count as one (1) Member for the purpose of determining the quorum; and (ii) where a Member is represented by more than one (1) proxy such proxies shall count as only one (1) Member for the purpose of determining the quorum. | Quorum |
|-----|--|--------|

- | | | |
|-----|---|---|
| 81. | If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of Members shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day is a public holiday then the next business day following that public holiday) at the same time and place or to such other day, time or place as the Directors may determine. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved. | Adjournment if quorum not present |
| 82. | The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting, but if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the Members present shall choose some Director, or if no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, one of themselves to be Chairman of the meeting. | Chairman |
| 83. | The Chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more or sine die, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. | Adjournment by chairman |
| 84. | (1) If required by the listing rules of the Exchange, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the Exchange). (2) Subject to regulation 84(1), at any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by: (a) the Chairman of the meeting; or (b) at least two (2) Members present in person or by proxy (where a Member has appointed more than one (1) proxy, any one (1) of such proxies may represent that Member) or attorney or in the case of a corporation by a representative, and entitled to vote thereat; or (c) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy (where a Member has appointed more than one (1) proxy, any one (1) of such proxies may represent that Member) or attorney or in the case of a corporation by a representative or any number or combination of such Members, holding or representing not less than five per cent (5%) of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or | Mandatory Polling Method of voting where mandatory polling not required |

- (d) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy (where a Member has appointed more than one (1) proxy, any one of such proxies may represent that Member) or attorney or in the case of a corporation by a representative or any number or combination of such Members, holding or representing shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than five per cent (5%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

A demand for a poll made pursuant to regulation 84(2) may be withdrawn only with the approval of the Chairman of the meeting, and any such demand shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. Unless a poll is so demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn), a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

| 85. | In the case of an equality of votes whether on a poll or on a show of hands, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled to as a Member or as a proxy of a Member. | Equality of votes |
| 86. | Subject to regulation 87, where a poll is taken, it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting may direct and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken. No notice need be given of a poll not taken at once. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chairman shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. The Chairman of the meeting may (and, if required by the listing rules of the Exchange or if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineer(s) and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll. | How a poll is to be taken |
| 87. | A poll on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time as the Chairman of the meeting may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken at once. | Time for taking a poll |
| 88. | Subject to the listing rules of the Exchange, if at any general meeting any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, or if votes are not counted which ought to have been counted, the error shall not vitiate the result of the vote unless it is pointed out at the same meeting at which the vote is taken or at any adjournment thereof, and is in the opinion of the Chairman of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the result of the voting. The decision of the Chairman of the meeting on such matters shall be final and conclusive. | Error in counting votes |

89. The Members may, if the Directors at their absolute discretion deem fit, participate at a general meeting by telephone or video conference or by means of similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and, if applicable, see each other and such participation shall constitute presence in person at such meeting and Members (or their proxy or, in the case of a corporation, their respective corporate representatives) so participating shall be counted in the quorum for the meeting. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of Members (or their proxy, or in the case of a corporation, their respective corporate representatives) present for purposes of the meeting is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the Chairman of the meeting is present.
- Meetings via electronic means

VOTES OF MEMBERS

90. (1) Each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney, and (in the case of a corporation) by a representative. A person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- (2) Subject and without prejudice to any special privileges or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any special class of shares for the time being forming part of the capital of the Company and to regulation 9, every Member who is present in person or by proxy, attorney or corporate representative (as applicable) shall have one (1) vote for every share which he holds or represents, Provided always that:
- (a) where a Member is represented by one (1) or more proxies and the voting is conducted by way of a poll, the provisions of regulation 94 shall apply; and
 - (b) where a Member who is not a relevant intermediary is represented by two (2) proxies, only one (1) of the two (2) proxies as determined by that Member, or failing such determination, by the Chairman of the meeting (or by a person authorised by him) in his sole discretion shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands; and
 - (c) where a Member who is a relevant intermediary is represented by two (2) or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands.
- (3) For the purpose of determining the number of votes which a Member, being a Depositor, or his proxy may cast at any general meeting on a poll, the reference to shares held or represented shall, in relation to shares of that Depositor, be the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at seventy-two (72) hours (or any such time permitted under the Statutes) before the time of the relevant general meeting as certified by the Depository to the Company.
- Voting rights of Members

- | | | |
|-----|---|--|
| 91. | A Member who is mentally disordered or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental capacity may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, curator bonis or such other person as properly has the management of his estate and any such committee, curator bonis or other person may vote by proxy or attorney, but no person claiming to vote pursuant to this regulation shall do so unless such evidence as the Directors may require of his authority shall have been deposited at the Office not less than seventy-two (72) hours before the time for holding the meeting at which he wishes to vote. | Voting rights of Members who are mentally disordered |
| 92. | In the case of joint Members, any one (1) of such Members may vote and be reckoned in a quorum at any general meeting, whether in person or by proxy, but if more than one (1) such Member is present at the meeting, then in voting upon any question, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other registered holders of the share and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members or the Depository Register (as the case may be). The Directors may, if they think fit, and if in their opinion the profits of the Company justifies such payment, without any such sanction as aforesaid, from time to time declare and pay fixed dividends (either in cash or in specie) on any class of shares carrying a fixed dividend expressed to be payable on a fixed date on the half-yearly or other dates (if any) prescribed for the payment thereof by the terms of issue of the shares, and may also from time to time pay to the holders of any class of shares interim dividends of such amounts and on such dates and in respect of such periods as they may think fit. | Declaration and payment of dividends |

 - (d) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been accorded) shall not be payable in cash on the shares of the relevant class in respect of which the share election has been duly exercised (the “elected shares”) and in lieu of cash and in satisfaction thereof shares of the relevant class shall be allotted and credited as fully paid to the holders of the elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose, and notwithstanding the provisions of regulation 170, the Directors shall (i) capitalise and apply out of the amount standing to the credit of any of the Company’s reserve accounts or any sum standing to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution as the Directors may determine, such sums as may be required to pay up in full the appropriate number of shares of the relevant class for allotment and distribution to and among the holders of the elected shares on such basis, or (ii) apply the sum which would otherwise have been payable in cash to the holders of the elected shares towards payment of the appropriate number of shares of the relevant class for allotment and distribution to and among the holders of the elected shares on such basis.
- (2) (a) The shares of the relevant class allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation shall rank pari passu in all respects with the shares of that class then in issue save only as regards participation in the dividend which is the subject of the election referred to above (including the right to make the election referred to above) or any other distributions, bonuses or rights paid, made, declared or announced prior to or contemporaneous with the payment or declaration of the dividend which is the subject of the election referred to above, unless the Directors shall otherwise specify.
